Lt. Gen. Edward Heinz
Director of Central Intelligence
Director, Intelligence Community Staff
Washington, DC 20505

Dear General Heinz:

Media Security Incorporated was a recent participant in the Personal Computer (PC) Security Conference held at the Rosslyn Westpark Hotel in Arlington, Virginia.

As a small business dedicated to addressing computer security concerns, this experience was both a privilege and essential. The information attained by this participation provides us with a great deal more confidence in our product development.

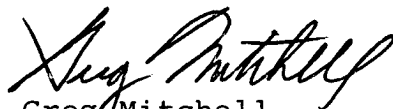

I wish to express my personal appreciation to the efforts put forth by [] in coordinating and assisting us with our activities related to this conference. [] was available to provide the direction and critique necessary for my presentation. Additionally, he was attentive to the specific requirements of our unique display which enabled us to present our current products effectively.

It is our belief that continued participation and support of small business, represents the greatest hope for the innovation necessary to expeditiously solve the myriad of computer security problems confronting our nation.

Thank you for this opportunity.

Sincerely,

Greg Mitchell
President
